

"There is something in the New York air that makes sleep useless." Simone de Beauvoir

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 18 - SUNDAY, OCT. 22, 2017

New York City

ACADEMIC EXPEDITIONS AND BRENAU UNIVERSITY ARE JOINING TOGETHER
IN THE CREATION OF A UNIQUE AND FASCINATING ADVENTURE THAT WILL GIVE YOU THE BEST TASTE OF "THE BIG APPLE"

Through dynamic tours of the historic neighborhoods, you will actively engage with the past, the present and the future of this ever changing city. While it's impossible to take in all the excitement of New York in a short time, we have created for you a program with the city's essential attractions highlighting the sights and sounds you must experience!

* Price is based on 45 travelers per coach and may be adjusted based on the final number of participants.

Highlights of the trip include:

- The bright lights of Times Square
 - The breathtaking views from the Empire State Building's observation deck
 - Statue of Liberty & Ellis Island, the two great symbols of America as the land of opportunity and freedom
 - 9/11 Memorial & Museum, a reverent stop at Ground Zero to remember and learn more about the events of Sept. 11, 2001 through the personal stories of those who were there that day
 - Harlem, one of the city's most vibrant neighborhoods and a world capital of African-American history and culture
 - The heart of Manhattan, Central Park
 - The Met, one of the world's largest and finest art museums
 - Walk across the Brooklyn Bridge with spectacular views of the Manhattan skyline
 - Tour the international headquarters of the United Nations
 - The ethnic diversity of East Village with the Tenement Museum's experience
- ...and more!

Your Academic Expeditions trip includes:

- Deluxe motor coach transportation (with Wi-Fi and electrical outlets onboard) and driver
- Round trip motor coach overnight transportation between Gainesville, Ga. and New York, N.Y.
- Premium accommodations (2 nights at Hyatt Place Secaucus/Meadowlands)
- Half Board: (2) meals per day (3 Breakfasts and 3 Dinners). Lunches are at own expense
- Full-time professional Academic Expeditions tour educator/guide (3 days)
