

Literary Analysis Paper Prewriting and Organizing

---

List your chosen topic here.

Now answer your question as directly as possible in a complete sentence. Write it below.

Now consider how you will structure your argument. Think in regards to “sections” not paragraphs. This should not be a five paragraph essay. Write headings in the boxes below for the sections of your essay. (You might not need all of them.)

--	--	--

Now go back and add page and paragraph numbers for supporting passages. This chart can grow to become the body of your paper. Be sure to include strong topic sentences for each paragraph and textual support as well.