

New Mexico

Join a learning environment – Director of Rehab and OT Team Lead are supportive on continuing education and making this job the best quality!!!

Join a dynamic workplace where you will provide high-level occupational therapy care to patients requiring physical and occupational rehabilitation so that they can return to their lives. No two days are alike with the wide variety of patients.

New Grads are welcome. A robust Mentorship Program!

Wide variety of patients: Ortho and Neuro / Oncology, Post Surgical, SCI, Joint Replacement, Stroke, Trauma, Cardiac Arrest, amputation, post car accident, and others.

ROLE:

Team-Oriented – Interdisciplinary Team: PT, OT, RN, Physician, Case Manager

- Daily rounding within a large interdisciplinary team
- Collaborate with Physicians and other healthcare professionals.
- Treat patients with disabilities and chronic illness to attain optimal function.
- Assist patients in their move toward independence by setting realistic goals.
- Opportunity to treat multiple patients of varying diagnoses.
- Enjoy seeing patients get better and return to the things in life they enjoy.

COMPENSATION:

- Salary range ~$38-$53/hour – Position is non-exempt (paid for overtime)
- Plus, Relocation Package is a Lump Sum / no receipts required.
- Monthly Tuition Loan Reimbursement - to pay off school loans.
- Comprehensive Benefits
- Continuing Education

Highly desired LOCATION with a ton of outdoor recreation

- A beautiful metropolitan city with outdoor recreational amenities. Mountain Range, Rivers, and new housing construction as well as new apartment buildings. Snow skiing, hiking, biking, river rafting and canoeing. Downtown has tall buildings, top-rated restaurants, unique shops, and endless entertainment venues. Universities and Community Colleges. And what makes it extra great is the affordable cost of living. Impressive housing options and breathtaking views

For a prompt response with full details, please send a resume to Patty Wyatt CLINIPOST / patty@clinipost.com 972.342.5818 / Search Firm specializing in Permanent-Hire Healthcare since 2007

