

Job Announcement:

OT for Inpatient Rehab in Albuquerque, New Mexico – mentorship for new grads

We are hiring an Occupational Therapist (OT) for our inpatient rehabilitation hospital that provides a higher level of comprehensive inpatient rehabilitation services designed to return patients to leading active and independent lives. Our hospital provides a wide range of rehabilitation services with all the most innovative equipment and the latest technology with an experienced staff to mentor a new grad. New employees will have a preceptor until able to treat independently. This is a great facility to learn as a new grad!

Patient mix is comprised of many different diagnoses including stroke, brain injury, multiple trauma, neuro, multiple joint arthritis, hip fractures and spinal cord injuries, pulmonary, orthopedics, cardiac and general deconditioned patients.

Our inpatient rehabilitation hospital uses an interdisciplinary team approach that includes physical, speech and occupational therapists, rehabilitation physicians, rehabilitation nurses, case managers, dietitians and more, combined with our advanced technology and expertise, to help you patients achieve their goals.

We offer specialized programs in:

- Spinal Cord rehabilitation
- Stroke rehabilitation
- Orthopedic rehabilitation
- Neurological rehabilitation

By joining our team you become an important part of our hospital affiliation. You work with a team that is passionate about making an impact on the lives of people every day.

- Interdisciplinary team approach (work closely with Pharmacy, Case Management, Physicians, Therapy and Nursing) in all aspects of patient care.
- Ability to build relationships with your patients and family (average length of stay is 12-14 days).
- Ability to see your patients get better (we celebrate each and every patient as they graduate)!
- Exposure to best practices in both nursing and therapy.
- Huge focus on education: CRRN program (Certified Rehabilitation Registered Nurse), Therapy Career ladder, free CEU courses offered along with a $2500 reimbursement stipend for continuing education.
- Loan Repayment program to help pay off student loan debt (after 1 year in full time position will pay up to $250 per month towards student loans - $3k annually; no work commitment associated).

Albuquerque has more than a dozen museums, an Old Town area featuring more than 150 shops, restaurants and galleries, and a nostalgic stretch of Route 66 that combines old and new for an exciting visitor experience. Albuquerque real estate is also affordable, with a median home price significantly below the U.S. average. Along with low property taxes, state income tax is 31% lower than the national average, making Albuquerque an affordable place to live. Every October the city hosts the world class Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta in which over 800 hot air balloons participate. New Mexico—known as the Land of Enchantment—is a unique and beautiful state full of stunning landscapes, rich heritage, and so much more.

- Competitive salary
- Relocation assistance
- Continuing education and Excellent benefits.
